

One Of A Kind Show, The Artist Project Return To Chicago

The 8th Annual One Of A Kind Show And Sale, December 4-7, returns to Chicago's Merchandise Mart with fine art and crafts from more than 500 juried artists. The One Of A Kind Show will present more than 60,000-square-feet of unique painting, sculpture, glass, photography, ceramics, jewelry, wearable art and furniture in five show sections, including: Fine Art Gallery, The Fashion District, The Gourmet Gallery, Wine Tasting and Emerging Artists.

The show has partnered with Chicago's Children's Memorial Hospital to raise money through show tickets sales. One hundred percent of ticket sales from the show's opening day, Thursday, December 4th, will benefit Children's Memorial Hospital. Also, a number of exhibiting artists will donate a percentage of their sales that day to support the hospital. On Friday, December 5th, a portion of the ticket sales will benefit Y-ME Illinois, an organization providing resources and information to families touched by breast cancer. Profits from a silent auction on Friday will also benefit Y-ME Illinois. The giving continues on Saturday as guests enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in a benefit, from 5-7 p.m., for the Frank Lloyd Wright Preservation Trust. For ticket information, visit www.wrightplus.org. Meanwhile, organizers have compiled a complete roster of trend- and design-focused seminars and demonstrations open to all One Of A Kind Show attendees. Click here for a complete list of events.

Dailey Woodworking will feature its nested wood bowls in booth #8-1132.