ARTIST SHARON DELACRUZ Unveils Her “Cherry Belle 2010 Scarf Collection”

CHICAGO, USA – Chicago Textile Artist SHARON DELACRUZ will debut her Art Scarves, with the unveiling of her Cherry Belle 2010 Scarf Collection at the Chicago One of a Kind Show and Sale held at the Merchandise Mart coming on December 3-6, 2009. Open to the public, this annual holiday event features 400 trend-setting artists, artisans, and designers showing their contemporary clothing, jewelry, and accessories.

On Friday, December 4, at 12:00 noon, at the show's Fashion District Center Stage (as part of the collection debut); Ms. DeLaCruz will be presenting: "The Artful Scarf is Your Best Friend", where the artist will demonstrate how simply changing your appearance with her Art Scarves can change your life! Also, by special arrangement, renowned Opera Soprano ROSE GUCCIONE will be performing a customized Aria commemorating Sharon DeLaCruz's "Cherry Belle Scarf Collection". The award winning Ms. GUCCIONE is the owner of www.OperaGram.com®.

Sharon DeLaCruz's handcrafted scarves are each one-of-a-kind, providing warmth and elegance. Their exquisite artistry is accented with hand-sewn detailed beadwork. Their dainty tassel embellishments, which "flirt with the wind as you walk", have been known to stir artful conversations and foster new friendships!

This unique collection includes a range of scarf sizes fitting small children to deluxe sizes, measuring up to 13" x 116". All are made with natural, quality materials – merino and alpaca wools, silks, and blended yarns. These beautifully handcrafted scarves, priced from $95 to $675, make the perfect gifts for him, her, and the young ones.

Each scarf comes with a gift storage bag, decorated by Ms. DeLaCruz's original artwork. To see more of Ms. DeLaCruz's scarves please visit on-line www.mycreativemoments.com. On December 3-6, 2009 see her wool scarves at Booth #8101 at the Chicago One of a Kind Show and Sale, visit on-line www.oneofakindshow.com.
